Conway Marshall went to Iowa the latter part of last week, on business, returning yesterday morning. He says he saw some of the finest corn in that state he ever saw in his life.

W. B. Linton of Arcata, Humboldt county, Calif., arrived here last Saturday, on his way to the World's fair, and visited with the Agitator family until Monday afternoon. Mr. Linton is an employe of the Miner Mills and Lumber company, one of the biggest institutions of the kind on the Pacific coast. The company owns several ships and carries its lumber as far as Australia. Mr. Linton is a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman, and is also an enthusiastic Californian. In fact, he thinks Humboldt county, California, is the hub of the universe.

Miss Mamie Alexander writes us from Manhattan that she will leave for Colorado Springs to-day or the first of next week, in search of health. Her application to work has undermined her health, and rest and recreation are necessary. Her many friends in Anderson county hope she will be successful, and that she will come back safe and sound.

Tom Brunson, mine host of the Fourth Avenue hotel, is all swelled up. The reason for this is that he has just got a handsome new golden oak counter into the office. He has also ordered about $75 worth of new chairs to match the counter. The counter, by the way, was turned out at McAfee's factory, and it is certainly fine.

Mrs. Stella Stein came up from Oswatimie on Friday of last week, to visit her parents, O. B. Adams and wife. She was accompanied by two friends Ben Gailbreath and wife. They returned home, Sunday afternoon.

The DeWolt furniture factory shipped to Cordell, Oklahoma, this week, one of the finest back counters ever turned out. It is of golden oak, and is certainly a beautiful piece of work.

Tom Holiday has purchased a billiard hall at Cherryvale, and he and his family will move there the first of next week. Walter has already moved his barber shop down there.

CLIFTON T. HIATT

When W. B. Linton, of Arcata, Calif., here, the first of the week, he made arrangements with Carle Champe to send him, by express, a lot of frogs. He says he will make a lake of three or four acres and stock it with bullfrogs. Bullfrogs sell for $7.50 a dozen in San Francisco, and it is almost impossible to get them, as they are not natives of that country. Mr. Linton thinks there will be "millions in it"—millions of frogs in the pond, and a million dollars or so in his pocket.

We see by the Greeley Graphic that J. B. Corley and wife have moved to Falls City, Neb. Joe is one of the old-timers of Anderson county—grew up here from babyhood. He is a man of solid worth, too—one of the best citizens of the county—and his removal is a loss to the community. We wish him prosperity in his new home.

Charley Paxton and wife came over from Paola Sunday, to visit their parents, N. J. Paxton and wife and Jas. Black and wife. Of course the baby came with them. Mrs. Paxton and the baby remained for a visit of a week or so.

Ira E. Myers and E. E. Barricklow left for Harper county, Monday morning, to look up a new location. They will probably both engage in the real estate business wherever they locate.

Miss Belle Hollingshead, who has been enjoying a vacation of a couple of months, returned to Topeka, Monday. She will visit the world's fair next week.

New Telephone Arrangement.

There is a move on foot to connect the city and country by telephone in such a manner that it will not cost city and country patrons of the line extra to talk to each other, the regular monthly rental being the only charge. As it is now, it costs a city patron 25 cents to talk to a rural patron. The move is to bring about a mutual arrangement by which the city line and the rural lines may co-operate. Rev. Darling is working up the new move, and he tells us that he is meeting with great encouragement. He says he is in communication with the Bell Telephone Company, and is confident that if he cannot make suitable arrangements with the Garnett Telephone Company, the Bell people are ready, and willing to enter into the arrangement. The result will be made known soon.

It is to be hoped that arrangements will be made with the Garnett company, for we do not need two companies in town.

Adam Lankard Hurt.

Yesterday, Adam Lankard was badly hurt by one of his horses. He had driven up to the home of Bryant Millman and got out of his buggy to hitch the team. Just as he started from the buggy toward the horses' heads, one horse became frightened and kicked him in the stomach, knocking him down. The team ran away, and one of the horses was badly hurt. Mr. Lankard was taken into Mr. Millman's house and Dr. Milligan was called, who found the injured man in a bad condition. We learn, to-day, that Mr. Lankard suffered intensely all of last night.

Kicked by a Horse.

Sage Kirkpatrick, the twelve-year-old son of Dr. Kirkpatrick, was kicked in the head by a horse, Wednesday evening, and seriously hurt. The boy had taken the horse from the stable to water him, when the animal whirled around and kicked, striking the boy on the forehead. The child's skull was fractured, and a piece of the skull was removed and the wound dressed. The little fellow has been conscious most of time since he was hurt, and takes nourishment. The friends of the family hope he will recover.

Coming Back to Kansas.

We see by last week's Kewanee (Ind.) Herald that Honard M. Brooke has sold that paper, and is coming back to Kansas. That's just what we thought Honard would do. He has lived in Kansas too long to be satisfied to settle down in a little Hoosier town where he couldn't "mix up" in politics. Honard is a "scraper," and he will not feel right till he gets back here and takes a hand in politics. We have heard it reported that he will come back to Garnett and run a straight Republican paper.

Snapp Captured

Snapp, the Greeley wife-beater, who escaped from jail last week, was captured in Kansas City the first of the week. The people of Greeley say he ought to be sent to the "pen" for a long term. They do not want him to return to Greeley.

L. W. Duncan has begun work on a telephone line from here to the Judy schoolhouse, where Joe Carey will meet him with a line running out from Garnett. When finished, this line will connect with the local exchange at Garnett, and also with the long distance line. The line runs south past the Catholic church till it gets to a point east of the Judy school, when it turns west. It is thought that the line will be complete in about thirty days.—Greeley Graphic.

Letter from Tom Morgan.

ROGERS, ARK., Sept. 18, 1904
Friend Champe: Pardon me for the delay in acknowledging receipt of copies of the AGITATOR. Ever since my return, I have been up to my Adam's apple in work, making up for lost time. A vacation is a joyous thing. I work myself to death to get the money, and then, when I get back, I work myself to death again to make more money so's I can take another vacation. Life, with me, is and grand, gay merry-go-round. ***

One can hardly be too optimistic regarding Garnett's future. Its tide of fortune has turned at last, and it is destined to be a city of considerable size. I can't diagnose (or however you spell it) the symptoms any other way. And I am heartily glad of it. The old town is always home, to me.

Sincerely Yours
TOM P. MORGAN.

Mrs. Kate Hutchison, Mrs. John Vaughn and Mrs. Ern Stevenson gave an "at home" reception at Mrs. Vaughn's residence, yesterday afternoon and evening in honor of Mrs. Joe Stevenson. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers. Ice-cream, cake and coffee and light refreshments were served. Various questions were discussed from naming the baby up to the Russo Japan war. All had a good time.

Greeley is improving right along. Dr. Taylor has built a handsome new residence. Dr. Smith occupies an office in a new brick building erected by C. H. Lyon. The telephone exchange is in the same building. Joe Fox is building one of the finest residences in Anderson Co. C. H. Lyon is laying the foundation for an up-to-date cottage. Bert Mumaw occupies a new brick barbershop. There are various other lesser improvements.

Mrs. Olive Holliday, of Denver, Colorado, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Swallow, the last two weeks, will go to Chanute next Tuesday, to visit her sister Mrs. J. M. Cavanaugh. From there she goes to Pittsburg, to visit a niece. She will then return to Garnett and visit her mother again before returning home.

J. B. Levy, of the Garnett Gas Company, has moved his family from Cherryvale to Garnett, intending to make this their home. Garnett welcomes them here. Mr. Levy has been one of the leading oil and gas men of Cherryvale, and his removal to this city augurs well for this community.

A little son of S. R. Perkins, superintendent of the gas company, fell between the wheels of a wagon, yesterday, while on his way to school. One wheel passed over his head and one arm, hurting him very badly. He may lose the sight of one eye.

Charley Marshall and wife came down from Kansas City, Sunday, to visit his parents, Conway Marshall and wife. They drove to Burlington, Wednesday, to visit Mrs. Marshall's parents, Charley's mother went with them.

Mrs. F. M. Cunningham, who was up from Chanute the latter part of last week, visiting her parents, W. R. Hollingshead and wife, returned home, Sunday.

T. E. Baldwin and wife, of Richmond, Ohio, who were visiting Col. Chas. McCrum and wife, left, Tuesday, on their return home. They were accompanied by Mrs. McCrum as far as St. Louis.

Nobody seeing the force of men laying pipe for the Garnett Gas Company can doubt that we will be ready to burn gas as soon as Jack Frost comes—sooner, in fact.

Ben Knight, who, for some time, has been located at New Orleans, arrived here last Friday, on a visit to his mother and brothers, Everett and W. O.

Oakley Thomas was down from Ottawa, Tuesday, visiting his mother. He said he was going to Iowa again to work on the Register.

Miss Jennie Wildman and her sister-in-law who lives at Cripple Creek, Colo., go to Lawrence, to-morrow, to visit a few days with friends.

John Slonaker orders the Agitator sent to him at Salem, Oregon, so we presume he has taken up his abode there for the present.

A large crowd of Garnett people left for the world's fair, Tuesday. We are unable to give the names of all the party, so give none.

You ought to drop into the Michigan Cash store and see those new cushion-sole shoes for men and women.

L. H. Vertrees and Mrs. J. P. Moberly were united in marriage by Judge Slicer on Thursday of last week.

If you want to loan THE NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE will try to satisfy you as to rate.
